Set your browser to <http://www.scottishrite.org> and enjoy a program highlighting talented Masons, information on the Craft, and opportunities for participation. The event runs from 3:00 PM to 9:00 PM our time. (See page 5.)

Upcoming Events

On May 3 we will confer the 18th Degree, Knight Rose Croix. Brother Bob Sills, 32° KCCH, and his team have been working hard to put this together. We will meet at 9:00 AM and start the degree at 10:00.

At our May 12 stated meeting we will have a very special speaker, Masonic author Brother Tim Hogan, 32° KCCH, whose topic is "Kabbalah: The Key to Understanding the Mysteries of Freemasonry". See flier on page 9. This is part of our Masonic Education Program and provides an opportunity to learn something about this often discussed, but not well understood, subject.

Also, in honor of Mother's Day, the dinner on May 12 will be free to

Prior to our June 9 stated meeting Mr. Chuck Terra, Resource Development Manager of Food Share, will speak to us on the excellent work his organization does. Please bring some non-perishable food items to donate. Dinner reservations are due to Harold by June 5.

As in past years, on June 23 we will get together for pizza and planning for the New England Summer Picnic and the Child ID booth at the Ventura County Fair. Everyone is welcome. You may bring other food items to share if you like. Please coordinate with Brother Harold Bogner, who is in charge of the event.

Our next highway cleanups will be on Saturday, May 17th and June 14th. Meet at the Café 126, 11003 Citrus by Wells Rd., Saticoy, at 7:00 AM for breakfast. Newcomers are always welcome.

New England Picnic

This is our big summer event. Please see the flier on page 8. Let's talk it up and sell those tickets and have a large turnout and lots of fun and fellowship this year.

You are encouraged to donate raffle items and baked goods for sale at the picnic. Lady Jan Bogner is in charge of this part of the activity. Last year we were able to raise $900 in addition to the proceeds from the ticket sales. Jan would appreciate it if you could bring the baked goods in a cooling container since there is limited space in the refrigerator to store them. She would also like to have all raffle goods by July 4th so that there is time to process them and have them ready by the day of the picnic. And she would appreciate the help of our ladies on the day of the picnic.

Jan is working very hard to make this a success. Please help her out.

News of the Valley

Prior to our March stated meeting we watched the second part of a video by the late Masonic author John Robinson (Born in Blood, A Pilgrim's Path) on the public's understanding of our fraternity. Prior to our April stated meeting we viewed a video by Masonic author Brother Tim Hogan on the influence of Alchemy on Freemasonry. Brother Hogan will speak to us in person at our May stated meeting (see flier, page 9). This is all part of our effort to provide a first class Masonic education program for our Valley.

On March 14 and 15 our Venerable Master, Brother Raul Cifuentes, 32° KCCH, attended a regional Scottish Rite workshop in Portland, OR, and has brought back many excellent ideas that we will be working to implement in our Valley in the coming months.

On March 29 we conferred the 4th and 14th Degrees on Brother Paul Santiago, 14°, as well as Brother Scott Doyle as a courtesy for the Valley of Santa Barbara. Many members of our Valley put in a great deal of effort to pull them off and we appreciate their hard work.

At our April stated meeting we enjoyed an excellent dinner prepared by Brother Ronald E. Robinson who is a Chief Culinary Specialist for the Navy. Brother Ron has petitioned our Valley and has been elected to receive the degrees in our Fall Class. We hope to enjoy more of his culinary art.

Under the leadership of Brother Bob Sills, 32° KCCH, we have instituted a recycling program for laser printer cartridges, ink jet cartridges, cell phones (with batteries), digital cameras, tablets, and similar small electronics. The proceeds go to support the Child ID program. Pickup boxes are located at Oxnard and Channel Islands Masonic Centers. See flier on page 10.

From the PR's Quill

Jerry E. Gonzales, 32° KCCH

Greetings from the Personal Representative.

Welcome to spring and into summer. Our Valley has been very busy this year, with many events and degrees. We started our Spring Class and still have the 18th degree to go before we take our candidates to another valley to finish their journey in Further Light. I am proud to say a hand full of officers and new members have been very busy lately, to bring you programs, dinners, and degrees, and I wish to thank all of them for their support. I presented to you a video of a lecture by Brother and Masonic Scholar Timothy Hogan this past month, and we are pleased to announce he will be in our Valley in May to do a special Presentation on "The Qabbalah: the Key to Understanding the Mysteries of Freemasonry and as it relates to Masonry". There are two versions to this lecture, one for Masons only and one for the public, and I have chosen to make this a public event so that we may bring our ladies as well as interested guests. I am hoping for a big turnout for this event, so please do not hesitate to invite your friends, relatives or prospective masons. The presentation is free, but if your guests would like to join us for a very special dinner prepared by a brother from Oxnard Lodge you will need to make reservations for them, with Sir Knight Bogner; or better yet bring them as your guests, pay their dinner and show them some Masonic Hospitality. Brother Timothy Hogan travels around the country making presentations, from coast to coast; I hope all of you will be present to welcome him to our valley.

We are also about to move into the New England Picnic ticket sales for 2014; the tickets are being printed and the flyer is on the horizon (see page 8). Last year we had record attendance, with more and more Masonic Bodies joining us, from the Grand Master of California to the Potentate from the Shrine, we continue to grow and are hoping for more this year. I already have some non-Masonic friends asking about it, and talking it up. Please remember this fund raiser is for the 'Santa Barbara Language Clinic' which is what Scottish Rite Masonry is about and although we in Ventura do not have a clinic in our valley, we are contributing, like all other valleys are, trying to further the foundation which supports the Language Disorder Clinics around the state. Our California Foundation is a major operation, and I am always so happy when we can make a major contribution to this effort. Please once the tickets are out; Sell, Sell, Sell and buy some as well for your family and friends. We need your support.

Some other business: please support our 'Adopt-A-Highway' Clean up event. For those of you who do not know I am a Maintenance Manager for State of California and know the Adopt a Highway Program is being over hauled and being looked at closely. We want to insure we are doing our part to maintain our permit to do this clean up and show our name on the freeway. My hat's off to those who take part in this effort, and I will do whatever I can to make it work for all of us.

In May we may forgo the normal meeting due to our special program, and in June will have a brief speaker and take care of business for the summer. We also will have our Picnic and Child ID planning meeting in late June, so watch your calendars. Remember although we are dark in July and August, we will still be busy with special events. I hope you all have a great summer. I am looking forward to seeing you for our program, dinner and the New England Picnic.

Thank you in advance to all who make these events happen!

Lastly, on Saturday, July 12th we will be hosting our traditional New England Picnic. Preparation to this important event has already commenced. We need your help. Get involved, help us make this picnic a successful event; it is all for a good cause. The kids treated at the Santa Barbara Scottish Rite Language Center will be benefited from all the proceedings.

THE COUNCIL OF KADOSH

Robert "Dee" Matson, 32° KCCH, Commander of Kadosh

(In continuation of this article from March & April Trestle Board on Albert Pike's Morals and Dogma.)

Although the work is a considerable mixture of ancient and modern mysteries and magism, there was something else which critics overlooked, and that was Pike's own simple and practical philosophy of truth, virtue, goodness, mercy, justice, and broad humanitarianism, and his belief in a beneficent, merciful, comforting and protecting God, the Father, together with his staunch adherence to constitutional republican government. In the midst of abstruse Hermetic or Alchemical formulae that threaten to lose the reader somewhere between Alpha and Omega, there will emerge a very modern lesson of public or private morals, political science the common welfare or other indispensable fundamental truth. The main trouble with Morals and Dogma is that one man was not enough to produce the work it ought to have been. The work shows no evidence of planning, of starting with simple things and proceeding to an outstanding conclusion. It seems doubtful that Pike anticipated writing so large a book at first, so that ideas which seemed appropriate for the 32nd degree are as likely to occur in the 27th or 19th, and likewise, instead of finding the Egyptian religion disposed of in one or two degrees, or the Eleusinian Mysteries in another, the Kabbalists in a third, and Zoroastrianism in a fourth, etc., etc., each of such subjects is scattered through the whole just as Pike from time to time encountered them in the library books taken from the shelves.

But in a final word for critics: before denouncing Pike or demolishing Morals and Dogma, try, yourselves rewriting the rituals of 32 degrees, Scottish or otherwise, and then a book of some 800 or 900 pages elucidating them!

What else is there to be said?

In Memorium Donald G. Ingalls, 33°, PGM

Our Brother Donald G. Ingalls, 95, of Olympia, Washington, passed away on March 10, 2014, after a long illness. He was born July 29, 1918, to Park Ingalls and Luella "LuLu" Morris Ingalls in Humbolt, Nebraska. He lived an unassuming, but remarkable life.

Don considered Stafford, Kansas his happy childhood home, despite harsh economic conditions. He moved to Southern California with his mother in the 1930s. There he attended North Hollywood High School while working at various menial jobs to help support the family.

He served as a bomber pilot in the U.S. Army Air Corps during World War II, and afterwards was a test pilot for North American Aviation, before joining the Los Angeles Police Department.

A writer since childhood, Don wrote freelance for publications such as Desert Magazine. He was a columnist for "The Valley Times" in North Hollywood, and was editor of "The Beat" magazine for the LAPD. There he formed a friendship with fellow police officer Gene Rodenberry of later Star Trek fame, and both transitioned to the burgeoning television industry where Don spent over 35 years as a prolific film and television writer and producer.

As a young man, he became a member of North Hollywood Masonic Lodge and later the Master of that lodge. In 1978-79, he served as Grand Master of the (then) Grand Lodge of California and Hawaii. In addition, he was Past Master of Channel Islands Lodge No. 214 by affiliation.

On April 20, 1974 Don joined the Scottish Rite in Santa Barbara and affiliated with the Valley of Ventura on October 12, 1978 as one of our charter members. He received the 33rd Degree on October 19, 1983.

During his Hollywood career, Don wrote and produced for numerous highly regarded TV series, such as "Have Gun, Will Travel," "Bonanza," "The Big Valley," "The Virginian," "Gunsmoke," "Marcus Welby, M.D.," "Star Trek," "Police Story" and "Fantasy Island." He also wrote the feature film, "Airport 1975," along with TV films, such as "Captain America" and "The Initiation of Sarah."

On retiring to Olympia, Washington in 1987, Don wrote a novel, "The Watchers on the Mountain." As a man of strong faith, he enthusiastically used his talents for the church, writing many skits, directing children in puppetry and drama, and writing a stage play for Westwood Baptist Church. He also mentored and encouraged younger writers.

He is survived by Mary, his second wife of almost 49 years, and daughter Lori Harasta, son-in-law Jim Harasta and two grandchildren, Nicole and Logan Harasta. He is also survived by first wife, Annie Smith Ingalls, daughter Diana Ingalls-Farrell, and son-in-law Thomas "Nick" Farrell. His older sisters, Parkina "Pat" Jimenez and Luella Sides, preceded him in death.
